

South Island Badminton Needs You

To be trained as a Court Official

There is a lack of trained court officials in the South Island, this makes it difficult to hold tournaments and lessens the chance of important tournaments being staged in the South.

The Badminton NZ Court Officials are willing to provide a training session to encourage more officials and up skills those already with some training. Are you interested???

Please contact Simon Maister South Island Development Manager.

simon@badminton.org.nz

03 387 0685